EVENT INSPIRATION

Field Day BBQ

Take your team back to their school days and host a nostalgic field day! With activities like tug of war, obstacle courses, and mental puzzles, there are fun options for everyone. Consider ordering a BBQ spread from one of our amazing catering vendors!

Fun Fact: The term "field day" originated from the day troops could leave their barracks to conduct outdoor exercises.

Outdoor Cinema

Tell everyone to bring a sleeping bag or a comfortable floor seat! Here at CC@R we have the perfect room for an "outdoor cinema" event. Consider turning our Summit room into a movie lovers dream! Rent a popcorn machine to complete the atmosphere! With our dual 135" LED screens everyone will have a great view.

Fun Fact: Over 300 outdoor cinemas remain active today!

Summer Event Themes

Planning a party or event? You're likely already brainstorming what seasonal theme fits your group best.

When choosing a theme, you'll want one that entertains and drives guests to socialize.

Surprise your guests with our fun seasonal activities that they'll be talking about until next summer. And make sure to check out our local activities guide on the next page for more inspiration.

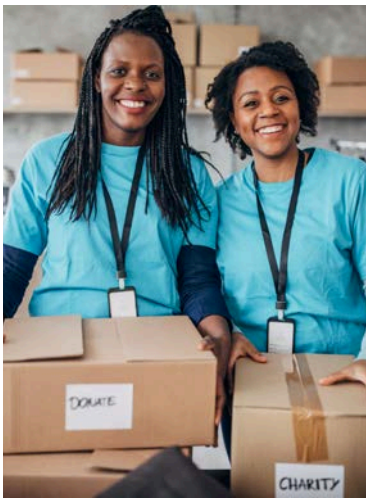

Ask for CC@R's Event Addition list that has party ideas you can add to any occasion.

Charity Day

Celebrate with your team while volunteering for a good cause! Build kits for local charities, or host a "fill the backpack" event. Not only is this a great idea to help your community, it's a fantastic group bonding activity for your company.

Fun Fact: A Precious Child is a local non-profit that empowers children with opportunities & resources.

Rooftop Mixer

Book our function space with the attached terrace & enjoy a warm evening outdoors! Decorate with string lights and calm acoustic music. This will feel more like a night out than a work function! Don't forget to hire one of our fantastic bartending vendors.

Fun Fact: The most notable rooftop event was in 1969 when The Beatles performed on the roof of Apple Corps.
